Fuller Award (nominee must be an AWWA member)

The American Water Works Association (AWWA) awards the George Warren Fuller Award. It may be presented annually to a member of ACWWA for distinguished service in the water supply field in commemoration of sound engineering skill, brilliant diplomatic talent and constructive leadership that characterized the life of George Warren Fuller. The Award was established in 1937 in memory of Mr. Fuller, who, besides being identified with several important sanitary engineering advances, is given much credit for AWWA's development from a social group to its present high standing as a technical organization.

Bedell Award (nominee must be an AWWA or WEF member)

The Bedell Award is awarded by the Water Environment Federation (WEF). It may be presented every three years to a member of ACWWA to acknowledge extraordinary service to a WEF Member Association. The Award is named for Arthur Sidney Bedell, WEF's second president, for his long devotion and service to the New York Sewage and Industrial Wastes Association, now the New York Water Environment Association. He was Chief of the Bureau of Sewage and Waste Disposal of the New York State Department of Health. The Award was first awarded by ACWWA in 2009.

MacNab Award (nominee must be a WEF member)

ACWWA awards the Ira P MacNab Award, which may be presented annually to a member of the ACWWA for outstanding service to the water industry in Atlantic Canada. The award was established in 1957 when the ACWWA was called the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Section AWWA. It is in honour of the late Dr. Ira MacNab, P.Eng., the first president of the Maritime Branch, for his untiring efforts and wise counsel during our formative years and to recognize his outstanding service and interest in the local water utility field.
